

Write an example of courage on the lines in the apple below. Remember some acts of courage can be very simple. When you are done writing your example cut out the apple.

