

Act: What Do We Say?

Name: _____

Sometimes it's shocking to see someone else being hurt, but it's important that if you see something then you say something. What do you say? Think about these steps.

SCENARIOS

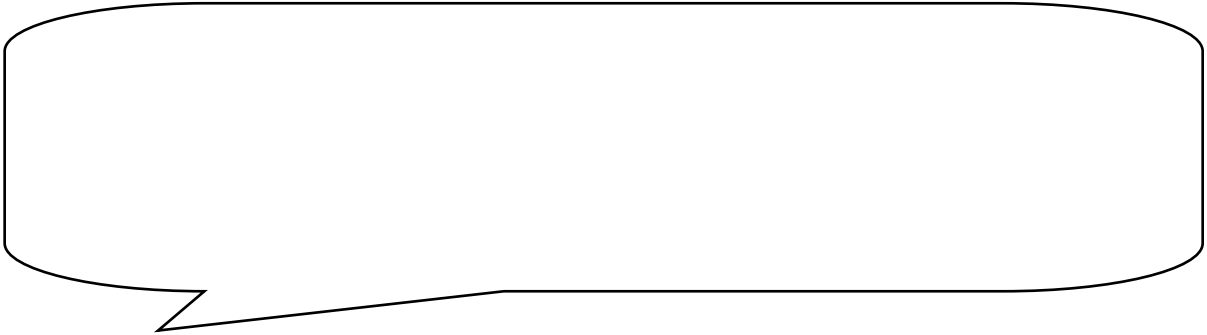

1. *Jennifer thinks Amy is ignoring her at lunch. In anger, Jennifer walks past Amy, knocks her arm hard, narrows her eyes, and glares at her. You see this happening. What do you say?

A large, empty speech bubble with a tail pointing towards the bottom left, intended for the student to write their response to the first scenario.

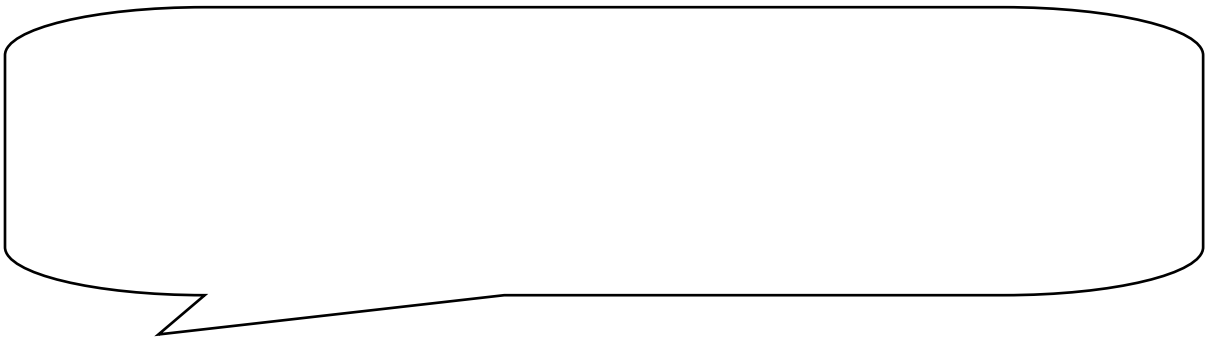

2. *Almost every day, when the teacher isn't looking, Chad reaches over to Billy's desk and pushes a book onto the floor, grabs a pencil, or hits him. Chad is quick enough that he never gets caught. You see this happening. What do you say?

A large, empty speech bubble with a tail pointing towards the bottom left, intended for the student to write their response to the second scenario.

3. During volleyball, though she tries, Lisa often misses the ball when it comes her way. When this happens, Brittany almost always mocks Lisa, calls her a name, or makes a threatening gesture. Though Lisa is intimidated by Brittany, she is tired of this treatment. You see this happening. What do you say?

4. Several students make rude comments about Thomas but Andy is the worst. At recess time, Andy and a few of his friends pretend that Thomas has 'cooties'. They dance around and yell, "Thomas has the cooties". Then they cross their fingers and try to touch him. Thomas doesn't have many friends. He is intimidated by this group of boys but he is also getting very tired of this treatment. You see this happening. What do you say?

5. Jane is a new student in school so she doesn't have any friends yet. Whitney is the leader of a small group of girls and Whitney decides she doesn't like Jane. Within her group, Whitney calls Jane a loser, makes fun of her hair, and spreads the rumor that Jane's parents don't love her. Jane can see and hear that this is happening. One day, while her group of friends watch, Whitney goes up to Jane on the bleachers, pushes her, and says, "Your mama is ugly". You see this happening. What do you say?
