

Are you on EI or have you had a claim in the last 5 years or have you earned more than $2,000 in insurable earnings and paid employee EI premiums on those earnings in at least 5 of the last 10 years OR are you a British Columbia Employment and Assistance Client with a Persons With Disabilities (BCEA PWD) designation?

Do you need on-the-job work experience and skills training?

Contact the WorkBC Centre to learn more!

WorkBC Centre – Victoria – Douglas 250-388-0858

| |
|---|
| Project Name: WPF 2.0 - Restart |
| Description: Help the WITS Program Foundation (WPF), Canada’s national bullying-prevention charity, adapt our systems to COVID19, upgrade our customer experiences, and reach more children and youth. |
| Participants will gain hands-on work experience/skills through the following activities: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Peer based anti-bullying programs ● Customer and partnership development ● Customer relationship management systems ● On-line event management ● Communications: branding, marketing, website design in WordPress ● Remote video training ● Project planning and management ● Plus, courses in inclusion and diversity Detailed job information for 4 positions is available at witsprogram.ca/jcp |
| For more information contact Shannon Whissell communications@witsprogram.ca 250-386-7625 |
| ALL APPLICATIONS MUST BE SUBMITTED BY REFERRAL THROUGH WORKBC |

This program is funded by the Government of Canada and the Province of British Columbia.